A Powerful Way to Understand People

(1 Day Workshop)

Course Outline

Description:
There IS a way to understand people - if you know the model of human behaviour! There is a simple KEY to understanding self and others. It will provide the key that will allow you to unlock the mystery of motivation and the power of good relationships. It will also demonstrate how to improve productivity and relate with others in ways that are more effective. You will discover how to manage yourself and influence others with integrity and handle the expectations in all areas of your life. This workshop is designed for all Department of Education employees who work with others and want to understand them.
