Description:
Students use Italian in a variety of listening, speaking, reading and writing activities designed to enable them to communicate in the following areas:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Week</th>
<th>Content</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1    | At the Police Station: [Teach Yourself Italian (TYI): Chapter 24]
Asking for help and advice
Asking and giving one's particulars |
| 2    | At the scene of an accident: [TYI: Chapter 24]
Asking for help at the scene of an accident
Calling the Emergency Department |
| 3    | At the scene of an accident: [TYI: Chapter 24]
Asking for help in an emergency
Holding the line when telephoning for assistance
At a Service Station:
Filling up the car
Seeking service |
| 4    | Exchanging Opinions: [TYI: Chapter 25]
Exchanging opinions about the Italian Press
Stating that you could or ought to or would like to do something |
| 5    | Expressing Opinions: [TYI: Chapter 25]
About television programmes and
About the role of television in modern society |
| 6    | Schaums Italian Vocabulary
At the Airport:
Getting to the airport
Checking in
Speaking with the Airline Agent |
| 7    | At the Airport:
Listening to Announcements
Changing an airline ticket |
| 8    | On the Aeroplane:
Welcome on Board
Announcements on Board
Safety on Board |
| 9    | On the Aeroplane:
Comforts and Amenities on Board
Passport Control and Immigration
At Customs |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>At the Train Station:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Getting a ticket and waiting for a train</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Checking in luggage</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Getting on the train</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>On the train</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>