Japanese Continuous Course Outline

Description:

This is a continuous post-Level 3 course, providing more expressions and structures which help students to communicate effectively in Japanese. It also presents many interesting yet important cultural aspects of the Japanese society which enrich students' intercultural communication skills. This course is recommended for students who have some background in Japanese language study including completion of Level 3.